

Christopher Alder – Death on Camera
Embargoed Press Release 14th April 18.00

'Examining the aftermath of the death in 1998 of former paratrooper Christopher Alder while in Police Custody. On April 1998 Christopher Alder, an ex-paratrooper, was dragged unconscious into a Hull police station. Minutes later he died on the custody suite floor. This investigation examines Christopher's death and whether the case will continue to taint relations between the police and the black community.' Radio Times 10-16 April 2004.

INQUEST have been working with Janet Alder, Christopher's sister since his death and would urge people to watch the programme examining his death on Wednesday.
