TENTH UNITED FRIENDS AND FAMILIES CAMPAIGN REMEMBRANCE PROCESSION ON SATURDAY

Saturday 25 October 2008. Assemble 1pm at Trafalgar Square. Then march to Downing Street and on to Parliament Square.

On Saturday 25 October some of the families INQUEST works with will gather to march in remembrance of their loved ones who have died in custody. Brought together by the United Friends and Families Campaign (UFFC), the families will march to Downing Street before continuing on to Parliament Square.

The UFFC is a coalition of relatives and friends of those who have died following contact with the police, in prison and in psychiatric detention. Since the first procession in 1999 relatives and friends have demanded the government act to prevent further deaths in custody, but every year more and more new families join the event.

Notes to editors:

1. INQUEST is the only non-governmental organisation in England and Wales that works directly with the families of those who die in custody. It provides an independent free legal and advice service to bereaved people on inquest procedures and their rights in the coroners' courts.
