INQUEST LAWYERS GROUP

INQUEST was set up in 1981 and is the only organisation in England and Wales that provides a specialist, comprehensive advice service to bereaved people, lawyers, other advice and support agencies, the media, MPs and the wider public on contentious deaths and their investigation, with a particular focus on deaths in custody. Casework also informs our research, parliamentary, campaigning and policy work.

Membership of the INQUEST Lawyers Group (ILG) is open to all lawyers who represent bereaved families and share INQUEST's objectives:

- a national group of lawyers providing preparation and legal representation for bereaved people at coroner's inquests;
- promoting and developing knowledge and expertise in the law and practice of inquests, providing training, and acting as a forum for the exchange of ideas and experience;
- campaigning for law reform and for public funding to cover legal costs for bereaved people at inquests.

Why should I become a member of the INQUEST LAWYERS GROUP?

- Significant benefits to members include: subscription to Inquest Law; a closed e-mail discussion group; referrals, information and support from INQUEST's casework service and policy work; provision of media support and issuing of press releases from INQUEST in selected cases.

You will receive:

- Inquest Law magazine three times a year. Inquest Law is the only publicly available journal that provides regular casenotes and reports on inquests following contentious deaths. With in-depth coverage of recent developments in inquest law

- and practice, and updates on policy changes relating to the inquest and investigation systems, it has a particular focus on deaths in custody and is widely distributed among practitioners, coroners, investigation bodies and academics.
- Information on the latest judicial reviews and ECHR cases;
- Advice and assistance on inquest law, procedure and practice;
- Background on relevant cases and related campaign, policy and research work;
- Invitations to regular meetings hosted by leading professionals and a chance to network;
- INQUEST's Annual Report and FREE membership of INQUEST.

MEMBERSHIP FEES:

Fees for the INQUEST Lawyers group from 1 October 2009 are as follows:

- Solicitors firms (with 1-3 inquest practitioners) .....£300
- Solicitors firms (4+ inquest practitioners) .....£500
- Barristers .....£150
- Pupil barristers .....£75
- Associate members (including retired or non-practising lawyers) .....£75 (single payment or £5/£7/£10/£other per month by standing order)
